PREFACE: TIME FOR DIPLOMACY IN RESOLUTION OF CONFLICT

All bad things and all good things come to an end: it is an ill wind that blows no one any good. The darkest cloud has a silver lining.

And following the natural way to my destiny by nonchalant, spontaneous and unpremeditated actions was the way I chose to progress this 24 year conflict to its natural conclusion. One who hides one's inner thoughts from other fellow human beings is hiding it from God for He is ever present and present everywhere not just dormant within the psyche of human beings. So I write, I correspond and I take action. I publish to bring it all into the public domain for the global humanity to peruse over and draw their own conclusions.

What follows is a determination that I have done everything and there is nothing left to be done. In the interests of sanatan dharma I needed to continue towards letting everyone know that I am ready to call it a day: the end of the 24 year Test Match in cricketing terms.

My publications in the websites and books not only served as running commentaries for the purpose of generating Knowledge for World Conservation and try and earn an income for myself by attempting to enhance my reputation in the world, but they were effective cover shots/drives in cricketing and normal language. They had the effect of freezing the morons individually, and the longer it went on the more confident I became of dealing with provocations and set-ups nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly. I just opened my email box and started typing. The results were astounding.

Dear Sirs

Thank you for your emails as attached: FrSolicitorsRegulationAuthority1Nov2021.docx

I have lost count of the number of solicitors that I reported to the Legal Ombudsman, the Bar Standards Board and the Solicitors Regulation Authority, and it may be possible for me to retrieve at least some of them for you to get on with the work of the Complaints Team.

If I can furnish any such information to help with your enquiries, please let me know within the next hour as the Court of Appeal is considering this matter as attached:

ToJudge(Court of Appeal)30Oct2021.docx.

In the meantime, I fully accept that you could take up to 45 days for a reply to this email.

Thank you

Thank you for reporting your concerns to us about solicitors.

We are now taking the time to carefully assess these, and we will also look at the regulatory information we may already hold to decide what we need to do next.

We will respond to you within the next 35-45 working days, sooner if we identify urgent problems that need our immediate response.

If we cannot help with your concerns, we will point you in the right direction.

Are we the right organisation?

We want you to raise your concern with the right people. Sometimes that is us. But other organisations may be best placed to help.

For example, if you have concerns about the professional service you have received from your solicitor, the right organisation to help is the Legal Ombudsman. Unlike us, it has powers to tell your solicitor to put things right, to pay compensation to you or reduce your solicitor's bill if it finds there has been poor service. More information about the Legal Ombudsman and how to make a complaint can be found at <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/>

The Court of Appeal

Dear Your Honour Judge

1. I have had to update my skeleton argument with regard to the Appellants Notice that I submitted to the Court of Appeal and which the Civil Appeals Registry has acknowledged albeit belatedly as shown in the attached: FrCivilAppealsREgistry(CourtofAppeal)30Oct2021.docx. The contents of the Appellant's Notice are also attached (Appellant's Notice CourtofAppeal5Oct2021.docx) in case this has not reached the Court of Appeal yet, and the Court should note in particular that Permission to Appeal the 21 June 2021 dated Order of the Central London County Court was refused by the Circuit Judge going by the documentation that I have brought to your attention here.

2. I should therefore be grateful if (after two years of litigation to bring Mr Boris Johnson the present Prime Minister to court for covering up criminally under the Prerogative Powers of the Executive as duties to the Monarch and also not preventing the State-organised persecution on me that has lasted 24 years) you would now kindly favourably Order the Trial as applied for persistently and if it continues to be undefended by Mr Boris Johnson in person, to Order the Prime Minister to award to me damages and compensation of £1 million to be deposited into my Tide Bank account so that I can use the money for my philanthropic endeavours as the President of the Conservative Libertarian Society. The Business Bank Account of the Society is Tide, Sort Code 04-06-05, Account Number 16771850.

I immediately drove to Long Catlis Road Surgery and spoke to the Receptionist about the urgency, but no appointments with a doctor was available today. I came home and went to the website and completed this enquiry as follows:

Shantanu,

The answers to your online GP consultation for general advice are below.

Your practice will respond by phone, text or email before 6:30PM on Tuesday, 2nd of November with your GP's feedback and treatment details.

Here are two important tips for ensuring you receive a response:

A call from your practice may sometimes appear on your phone as "Blocked", "No caller ID" or "Private number"

Check your junk email folder

If your doctor gives you a prescription, they will let you know where and when you can pick it up when they call you.

IMPORTANT: if your condition worsens or if you find the details you submitted are incorrect, please call the practice immediately on 01634 233491.

NOW WE JUST NEED TO KNOW WHAT KIND OF HELP YOU WOULD LIKE:

Tell us how we can help you I think I need advice

Please provide us with details of your problem You said: "My discharge from secondary care in Britton House adding to a previous discharge by of Britton House in June 2021 to Primary Care recommended that I should continue to take risperidone, sertraline and depakote for whatever Dr Odesanya perceived to be my mental illness. I have never ever been mentally ill but get paranoid when being set up for an attack on myself. So I do not need these medications. I do not need Finasteride and Tamsulosin either as they do not work.

So please stop issuing them."

Have you tried anything to treat yourself? Yes

What have you tried to help treat yourself? You said: "I have found out how to tackle the criminals of Victims of Panigrahi

Association (VOA) on their relentless attacks on me from September 2017 through emails sent to me, my wife, Dr Odesanya, my Care Coordinator Funke Aderibole, my employers Tesco and Sainsburys, and impersonating me in sending emails to countless people. The cure I found was to block them without attacking back on their provocations to get me to make a mistake so that I could get classified as a mentally ill or criminal person."

Has it helped? Yes

Is there any particular treatment you would like to request?

No

Would you like help from a particular person at the surgery? If the person that you requested is not available, another member of the team at the practice will contact you.

No

WE'LL NOW ASK YOU SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR SYMPTOMS:

Is this a problem your GP knows about? Yes

How has your condition changed since you last saw someone about it?

Improved

To ensure we only ask you relevant questions, please select the main symptom (or symptoms) that apply to you

Diarrhoea

How long have you had diarrhoea for? 1-3 days

How many times a day do you have diarrhoea? Once a day

Are you passing blood or black diarrhoea? No

Do you think you have consumed spoilt or poorly cooked food?

No

How often does your condition affect you? Only happened twice

Is there anything that makes your condition better? Yes

What makes your condition better? You said: "When I manage to quell the criminals that have attacked me my diarrhoea ceases."

Is there anything that makes your condition worse? Yes

What makes your condition worse? You said: "When I get criminal anonymous emails"

What do you do for a living? You said: "Retired"

Have you travelled abroad recently? No

On the next screen you'll be able to upload photos related to your request. Uploading photos is optional.

Please keep in mind that any photos you upload: will be added to your clinical record and used for your clinical care, may be seen by male or female practice staff, should not be an intimate area (such as genitalia, anus, bottom or breasts), even if these are the problem area.

Skip this

Is there anything else you think we should know? No

JUST A FEW LAST QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR GENERAL HEALTH:

If you have symptoms that might be caused by COVID, please arrange a PCR test as soon as possible via gov.uk/coronavirus or call 119. This will help your GP decide how best to treat you. A PCR test is different and more accurate than a lateral flow test that you can do at home.

> How very nice to hear from you on this Sunday. I welcome your predisposition to assist me and fully understand that you cannot help me with the Care organisation, and I also presume this includes the legal formalites at the Court of Appeal currently (Court of Appeal Reference No2018/PI/117215, on which I approached another solicitor that for one reason or another I could not work out for myself arrived from nowhere at my email account as a copy of something sent by someone impersonating me and sending it through Dizum.Com again. It was a malicious attack on District Judge Lightman and I am paranoid that despite my protest to the Central London County Court, Kent Police and the Court of Appeal yesterday the only reply I got from Kent Police is that I had taken all the necessary actions lawfully allowed in the matter. I mean it is bizarre for the Court of Appeal to now think that I would be sending an emails to myself that on this occasion also sent to enquireis@bblaw.co.uk. I paid these lawyers £25 as a down-payment for legal advice but have not received any advice yet. Maybe it is the weekend so they do not monitor their emails at weekends or their financial accounts to find out why a £25 Mastercard payment has been registered. I will see whether they refund my £25 or send me an email to question me on why exactly I had sent them this money. It is paranoia, nothing else, paranoia that I have had to continue to be on the guard to withstand State-organised persecution. My persecution complex leads me to do what is rational to me for my survival in dignity, but because I am a free-spirited libertarian, it is not rational to Dr Odesanya of Britton House, Gillingham, Kent ME8 0SL. He does not obviously wish to discuss the matter with me or I would ask him to give me his opinion on the following excerpt from my latest book 'Withstanding State-Organised Persecution' in the Preface:

> "This Book is about Me, the persecution that was unleashed upon me by the State of the United Kingdom for nothing other than speaking the truth. What is truth then: it is a spiritual term for those who have knowledge par excellence for they have left no stones unturned to uncover the reality in material and spiritual dimensions to get to know what they do. Whether that knowledge is sufficient for a persecuted person to survive within the State of the United Kingdom remains to be seen. I was educating the State, and through the State, the world. I was firing on all cylinders. I had to keep alive all my websites and continue to write my publications in eBook and print format. I was withstanding the opposition to my quest for Knowledge, the Knowledge that would Conserve the world I assumed but that objective was jettisoned, as it was a hindrance to truth-seeking yoga for it assumed that there is a legitimate reason to conserve the planet and its inhabitants, plants, viruses, animals and humans: who imposed that mission. I had no evidence of a God imposing any such mission for me. I was simply using the mission to see whether God existed as a Personal God and whether I would find sanatana dharma as the eternal law of the universe. On the 31 of October 12.19 pm I have no such proof, so I stay unconcerned and have no plans, objectives, anticipations, expectations, wishes, hopes, desires and ego: no delusions left, let alone delusions of grandeur. But the path is irreversible. So long as I live I will make some kind of progress or other nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly towards the question of whether God exists and if so in what form he exists and especially whether the developments on the Earth and wider universe are preordained and preorchestrated. I have no evidence for those fundamental questions. So I cannot preach that to anyone. All I know is that I have survived 24 years of the most horrendous persecution in the United Kingdom and beyond and it is still continuing. We will see what happens next."

> I am taking my 7 medications in the morning after breakfast and 2 medications - including the anti-psychotic risperidone, anti-depressant sertraline and mood-stabilising agents (God knows, I need them to be sure) and it has its moments of calmness and equanimity for me to be able to continue with my life as normal as I can. But not having any Psychiatric supervision on a regular basis over these medications that are recommended for me and not enforced as such gives me cause for concern that the medications need to be reviewed urgently. This only Dr Odesanya or preferably some other psychiatrist versed in human nature can do. Gurus and the rest I have tried: none of them could answer them.

No2018/PI/117215, on which I approached another solicitor that for one reason or another I could not work out for myself arrived from nowhere at my email account as a copy of something sent by someone impersonating me and sending it through Dizum.Com again. It was a malicious attack on District Judge Lightman and I am paranoid that despite my protest to the Central London County Court, Kent Police and the Court of Appeal yesterday the only reply I got from Kent Police is that I had taken all the necessary actions lawfully allowed in the matter. I mean it is bizarre for the Court of Appeal to now think that I would be sending an emails to myself that on this occasion also sent to enquireis@bblaw.co.uk. I paid these lawyers £25 as a down-payment for legal advice but have not received any advice yet. Maybe it is the weekend so they do not monitor their emails at weekends or their financial accounts to find out why a £25 Mastercard payment has been registered. I will see whether it they refund my £25 or send me an email to question me on why exactly I had sent them this money. It is paranoia, jo nothing else, paranoia that I have had to continue to be on the guard to withstand State-organised persecution. My persecution complex leads me to do what is rational to me for my survival in dignity, but because I am a free-spirited libertarian, it is not rational to Dr Odesanya of Britton House, Gillingham, Kent ME8 OSL. He does not obviously wish to discuss the matter with me or I would ask him to give me his opinion on the following excerpt from my latest book 'Withstanding State-Organised Persecution' in the Preface:

> "This Book is about Me, the persecution that was unleashed upon me by the State of the United Kingdom for nothing other than speaking the truth. What is truth then: it is a spiritual term for those who have knowledge par excellence for they have left no stones unturned to uncover the reality in material and spiritual dimensions to get to know what they do. Whether that knowledge is sufficient for a persecuted person to survive within the State of the United Kingdom remains to be seen. I was educating the State, and through the State, the world. I was firing on all cylinders. I had to keep alive all my websites and continue to write my publications in eBook and print format. I was withstanding the opposition to my quest for Knowledge, the Knowledge that would Conserve the world I assumed but that objective was jettisoned, as it was a hindrance to truth-seeking yoga for it assumed that there is a legitimate reason to conserve the planet and its inhabitants, plants, viruses, animals and humans: who imposed that mission. I had no evidence of a God imposing any such mission for me. I was simply using the mission to see whether God existed as a Personal God and whether I would find sanatan dharma as the eternal law of the universe. On the 31 of October 12.19 pm I have no such proof, so I stay unconcerned and have no plans, objectives, anticipations, expectations, wishes, hopes, desires and ego: no delusions left, let alone delusions of grandeur. But the path is irreversible. So long as I live I will make some kind of progress or other nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly towards the question of whether God exists and if so in what form he exists and especially whether the developments on the Earth and wider universe are preordained and preorchestrated. I have no evidence for those fundamental questions. So I cannot preach that to anyone. All I know is that I have survived 24 years of the most horrendous persecution in the United Kingdom and beyond and it is still continuing. We will see what happens next."

> I am taking my 7 medications in the morning after breakfast and 2 medications - including the anti-psychotic risperidone, anti-depressant sertraline and mood-stabilising agents (God knows, I need them to be sure) and it has its moments of calmness and equanimity for me to be able to continue with my life as normal as I can. But not having any Psychiatric supervision on a regular basis over these medications that are recommended for me and not enforced as such gives me cause for concern that the medications need to be reviewed urgently. This only Dr Odesanya or preferably some other psychiatrist versed in human nature can do. Gurus and the rest I have tried: none of them could answer them.

My Mobile phone rang at 12.40 pm. It was Dr Viano from the Long Catlis Road Surgery. He was responding the E-Consult representation of this morning. He asked you need to stop the mental health medications. I said 'all of them'. He asked 'Why?' I said 'I do not need them'. He said 'They discharged you?'. 'Yes' I replied, 'twice'. You said you were attacked by someone: I said 'Victims of Panigrahi Association, they sent me 1500 emails'. 'I blocked them', I added. He asked if my wife was there. I said 'Yes' and I went down and gave my Mobile Phone to her. They spoke and my wife said to him that she does not know what the sertraline and depakote are for that I was not depressed. She then told him about my urination problem that I need to go for urination every hour. It might have something to do with the Prostrate problem, Is there no operation? She said 'He should not come off all the medications or we will be in square 1. She said 'she had read that there is an operation for prostate that she had read about'. She gave the phone back to me then and I then spoke to Dr Viano again. He said to me that he will refer me to Urology and until then I should continue with all my medications. I asked when will the Urology appointment take place. He said that he did not know that but will make a referral. 'OK' I said we will do that (accepting that I will continue with all the medications until then at least). Call ended.

Hello Shantanu,

It is very clear from what you write to us that you are not only acknowledging but also struggling to live with the destructive effects that overwhelming paranoia is having on your life. You show great courage.

Can you tell us a little more about yourself in terms of the journey you have taken to reach where you are now. Has paranoia always been a mental health issue that you have struggled to control? Have there been times when you have felt it less intrusive, and if there have, is there anything you did to make it that way?

Coping strategies can be hard to find and our hope is that by talking with us you will be able to find the way through your fear to a point where there is the chance that confidence and hope will return. Stay safe and know that we are here to listen.

Dear Jo

I will give you the details of my adulthood and when the onset of paranoia came about and how it intensified gradually until it reached a crescendo when I received an email in September 2017 from Dr Sivaji Panesar of New Delhi attached as he was to the High Commission of India London but as part of the External Affairs Ministry of the Indian government. Since then, it has been 16 hours a day constant barrage of emails to contend with for me. But the paranoid feeling that I first detected was when during my struggle at the University of Greenwich when I was being deprived of project funds and my Line Manager Derrick Thomas with another colleague Dr Dannie Romney (female) disappeared from the office on a vital day that I was having to address the Departments call for concept notes in relation to KAWAD project in India and the Darwin Initiative project that I was interested in taking part in. I said to myself 'Hey, why are they not addressing my concerns, am I being racially discriminated against for project funds or is it the case that I did not fit in and was being herded into the block of 100 people that the University was intent on making redundant (40 initially), so I felt a kind of buzz in my mind that these Line Managers would not back me up to deal with my complaints of being marginalised out of project funds and especially when I attended the interview for Environment Manager with Maggie Gill and Anthony Beattie, the Director of the Institute, and did not get that job. So, when the KAWAD issue arose I fired off a criticism of the manner in which I was being marginalised by sending an email to David Jackson and curiously I saved the three disk files under the titles JACKS1.doc, JACKS2.doc AND JACK(ASS)3.doc. Simultaneously when I was asked by Maggie Gill to do a desk study of women in resource-poor farming which did not include poultry but only ruminant livestock, I saved the disc file 'COMWOMEN'.doc. When Dr Christopher Wood came back from a trip to India he had brought with him the journal 'India Today' that he presented to me saying that it was for me indicating that the Head of Department had asked him to give it to me. These I laughed about but it was a serious matter for these were the details that the Disciplinary Hearing should have heard and I was suspended from work so that I could not contact the colleagues and the Acting Manager Dr Richard Matthewman. On 20 October 1998 I was fired without a hearing that I could attend and without the severance payment of £55,000 for redundancy even after paying Mr Sorrell the solicitor that I hired £1750 in fees.

It was a bitter lesson and I then became very poor, working as a cleaner, warehouseman etc, which added to the paranoia that the State had organised my dismissal from the University and wanted me to find my own way back to India. Instead, I sought asylum for the reason that the Indian government and another 10 or so other countries would have had to examine the full story and seen that my application was legitimate for persecution.

I survived in this country and created a different freelance career from my computer in the house, but the State authorities terrorised me for doing that, especially for saying that I would rather go to a mental hospital for paranoia, not paranoid schizophrenia or persistent delusional disorder or mood instability or depression; for paranoia is a defence mechanism that those with superior minds have as an aid to survival. This is my belief and as you are aware I am a graduate in Pharmacology which included Behavioural Pharmacology. I never had to struggle to control my paranoia therefore, it came naturally to me. I coped with the 1500 criminal anonymous emails and dealt with the email imposters who usurped my name and email account to send the email that you have on the subject title of your correspondence. Such criminals are easy for me to deal with.

I hope this is clear.

(b) Reality is a three-dimensional sphere: at the periphery of its northern hemisphere is sattvic spirituality, at the periphery of its southern hemisphere is tamasic materiality, and at the core of the sphere is rajasic routinality extending into the equator of the sphere. All shades of gunas are to be found within this perfect sphere of Reality.

I think that there is no ideal greater than the one on ascertaining the reality of the presence of God in the past, present and future as an Entity. In my view there is something as an Entity that we should call God. There is no doubt in my mind on this. I consider myself to be living proof of it. The question nevertheless arises as to whether God has always been there in the past, present and will be there in the future, and if so what are his functions eternally. I have no answer, only conjectures on what I have personally experienced in my life.

If God was only there in the distant past and set in motion a universe in a pre-ordained and pre-orchestrated fashion and then disappeared leaving Brahma-Nature to take care of itself with Brahman that people consciously aspire to as the Supreme Self, should God be worshipped? What is Brahman Self? Does it matter? Yes it does matter. because if God set in motion the universe and disappeared, it is stupid to worship Him/Her/It.

Today I can honestly review that there is no such thing as destiny that one could try and uncover through acting nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly in all one's actions every moment of one's life. Destiny means you go to some horizon. What is that horizon you do not know. Is it liberation as mukti. Is it paradise, is it Brahmaloaka the Heaven and Hell combined. Is it nirvana? Who will tell you for certain that any such destination should be aspired to. I have not come across any kind of God who has given me revelations of that possible outcome to one's sadhana or bhakti. So, there is no point in bhakti. What does worship and bhakti do for people, or what is the expectation from bhakti and worship then. I used to have such ideas but at the age of 65 have run out of time to explore it further. All I know is that I still live as a human being. So, I do not have any expectations, anticipations, wishes, hopes, desires, missions, plans, objectives, ego and so forth. Worship did nothing for me except got me to the attention of the United Kingdom's authorities who promptly incarcerated me in mental hospitals on two occasions, first in 2004 and the second in 2008. I also spent a lot of money in seeking my fate and got fined £4170 by the Courts for my litigations that I was a sane human being and not a deranged lunatic. I was told yesterday that I still had to take my anti-psychotic, anti-depressant and mood-stabilising medications to be able to live in the Community effectively.

It is therefore pure delusions of grandeur that I had found God lying dormant in my psyche or that the digital clock checking that I did in the past yielded real messages from any such Entity from an ever-present God. I have created a Conception of Reality and it is a conception that is better than any other conception expressed hitherto. I have my websites and my books to sell and bring to the attention of humanity in the present generation and in the future that I had lived and these were my art work, a work of fiction effectively but with real human beings as actors that I named as belonging to a nation of morons in a police state. I could earn recognition, income and admiration from that. I have survived through satya-advaita yoga to become so knowledgeable and aware that I can handle anything thrown at me. That is the only thing that I have proven. I am lord of the jungle of Brahma-Nature. That is a reality whether or not it was pre-ordained and pre-orchestrated. I doubt it very much now, for why would there have been eight mass extinctions in the history of the Earth; to prove what if God is so elusive that after 65 years I do not have concrete proof of His existence in the past, present and the future to come. Were the mass extinctions to give the present generation food for thought about the Grand Design, for example.

I was never going to write these haunting questions after declaring myself to being a Maharishi of Hinduism yesterday, for I have income to earn and family commitments to fulfil; and I have recognition that I have thrashed the State of the United Kingdom through the legal channels to withstand the persecution that I have been victimised with over the past 24 years for being nothing other than a truth-seeker. This as the above discourse shows I continue to be. Or were these conceptualisations and websites weapons of warfare with the State of the United Kingdom only so that no one should take what I have written to have any meaning other than that.

It is therefore still possible that I was enacting a true life Mahabharatta as Arjuna did in the battlefield of Kurukshetra with Krishna, his charioteer.

Thank you for confirming in your email of 9:46:41 am Saturday that my declared plan to detain, remove and interrogate the corrupt arsehole District Judge Barry Lightman of the Central London County Court is "nothing of police interest at this time."

Are you available to meet with me for an in-depth personal probe investigation? My wife will be away, and I am a generous man with modest demands. My driver Gurpal Tiwana can pick you up and drop you off after processing, any gratuity you give him in cash or kind is strictly between the two of you and of no concern to me provided it is conducted outside the premises of Shanti Niwas and 12 Nares Road Rainham ME8 9RF and occurs after our transaction is completed.

An oversight in my original email to you was that while only one WPC accepted my offer of coffee, it was three of them who disturbed my yogic tranquillity there on that occasion.

Please convey your acceptance and suggest a suitable time, by phone or email. My legal advisers Professor Ray Coker, Lois Derham and Jackson and Co. are informed. Katie Marshall-Bailey has been sacked.

Set out the Order you wish to Appeal against:

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. It is ordered that:

(a) The Court has sought to join the Claimant in the BTMeetMe Hearing listed for today at 11.40 am.

The Court telephoned at least thrice the Claimant on the telephone number given by him in his application dated 19 June 2021 as 07967789619 but the telephone was not picked up.

(b) the application dated 19 June 2021 of the Claimant to adjourn be refused.

(c) today's hearing is merely to assess costs. The District Judge today has no other jurisdiction.

(d) the court's view is that all three costs schedules are reasonable and proportionate.

2. The Claim Form having been struck out judgment for the Defendant.

3. Claimant shall pay the Defendant's costs assessed in total as £4170.00 payable by 4.00 pm on 5th July 2021.

Dated 21 June 2021

Have you lodged this Notice with the Court in Time: Yes

I confirm that the grounds of appeal are attached to this Notice

Section 9: What are you asking the Appeal Court to do:

Order

(a) the Defendant to pay back the £4170 Costs paid to the Cabinet Office that I had to adhere to by the 4.00 pm 5 July 2021 deadline, and further Order the Defendant to pay the Claimant's Costs arising from the 21 June 2021 Order of an unlimited amount to be decided by the Court of Appeal.

(b) A New Trial based on the requirement of 19 May 2021 that the judgment was to be adjourned and so deferred.

Order a new Trial

Section 11 Evidence in support of my application:

I as the Claimant, suffered from autism for most of my adult life, being a slow learner from my childhood when I could only manage Grades E, E, C, E, E, at Ordinary level, B, C, D at Advanced level, and a 2,1 BSc degree. But I was hyperactive physically and mentally was a compulsive writer as your Honour will note from my scientific papers since totalling 35 when employed at the Natural Resources Institute; and my websites and the 11 books that I have written this summer that are published by Lulu Publishing Company.

This autistic behaviour was detected by Canada House Community Mental Health Institution 18 months ago and funding for out of area assessment sanctioned by the Medway Clinical Commissioning Group. Yet my Consultant Psychiatrists kept on misdiagnosing me as suffering from persistent delusional disorder and lately as paranoid schizophrenia for which anti-psychotic, anti-depressant and mood-stabilising medications that I do not need continue to be prescribed. Without the appropriate confirmation of my medical status I must have a new Trial to assess my damages and compensation claim against the National Health Service of £1 million for two spells of mental hospital confinement under Sectioning and the Care in the Community semi-detention since that have blighted my life. This is why I sought adjournment of the 21 June 2021 Hearing which was said prior to the Hearing to be a Pre-Trial Hearing for a Circuit Judge and not a Costs assessment Hearing for the Claimant or the Defendant from a District Judge. The Pre-Trial Hearing was to assess the forensic elements of my conduct over the past 24 years I was led to believe for I had been examined by a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist Michael Kingham.

Notwithstanding we are where we are, and as things stand today, despite protests from my wife and me to Britton House I was twice discharged back into primary care but kept on enforced medications of risperidone, sertraline and depakote. I was not sent to Maudsley Hospital for autism confirmation because they require childhood data and we do not have anyone who knows my childhood story to come forth and give evidence to the Hospital to confirm or deny that I am autistic.

Hence, in this Appeal against District Judge Lightman's Order I am challenging his decision to award £4170 in Costs to the Defendant, the Cabinet Office which includes the Health Secretary Right Honourable Sajid Javid. The Costs awarded are not only excessive and unjustified, but Costs should be now be awarded to me of £2000 instead on the efforts that I have had to go through with the numerous emails that I have sent the Court of Central London since the Order including three n244 Application Notices with a £100 Court Fee, none of which got a satisfactory reply.

The other erring in law of District Judge Lightman judgement is that I interpret this Order of 21 June 2021 as being the first time that a Judgment has been explicitly made that my Claim E35YM660 was struck out by the original judge in January 2018 (Deputy District Judge Smith), who had given the Claimant 14 days to lodge the fuller particulars of Claim, and I had insisted to successive judges from HHJ Backhouse, HHJ Letham and HHJ Parfitt that these time allocation were not sufficient for reasons cited above. The Claimant did not attend the Hearing of 21 June 2021 for duplicitous emails were bombarded into his email account that morning for which he had to seek the advice of his GP at the Surgery and a referral back to the Community Mental Health Team on a crisis-level emergency. The response of the Mental Health Team was abysmal and so were the Samaritans and later the Citizens Advice Bureau.

Thus, District Judge Lightman erred in law on three counts:

- (a) on the striking out of the Claim E35YM660 finally;
- (b) refusal to adjourn as previous judges refused also;
- (c) ordering of the Costs to the defendant as premature and disproportionate.

I believe that the facts stated in Section 11 are true.

GROUND S FOR APPEAL

The original Order on E35YM660 was as follows:

General Form of Judgment or Order In the County Court at Central London

Claim Number E35YM660

Date 14 January 2019

DR SHANTANU PANIGRAHI 1st Claimant

Ref

MRS THERESA MAY - PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 1st Defendant

Ref Z1819776/TBL/A4

Before Deputy District Judge Smith sitting at the County Court at Central London, Central London, R. C. J, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

UPON review of the Court file;

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1) Proceedings stayed.

2) Unless the Claimant by 4pm on 28 January 2019 file and serve amended Particulars of Claim showing a cause of action against the Defendant's the claim be struck out.

3) Any party affected by this Order may apply to vary it or set it aside by applying on form N244, such application to be received in the Court Office no later than 14 days after service upon him or her of this Order.

Dated 4 January 2019

If the E35YM660 Claim had indeed been struck out de facto at 4.01 pm on 28 January 2019 because the Claimant had not amended the Particulars of Claim showing a cause of action against the Defendants, District Judge Lightman would only have been justified in assessing the Costs of the Defendants as submitted by the Defendants on that day, not the inflated costs submitted by the Defendant the Prime Minister on 21 June 2021 to the Court. So clearly the Court's position is unsustainable, and the Claim had never in fact been struck out until District Judge himself took the step of interpreting the proceedings to that effect in order to terminate the Claimant's Appeal in the 19 June 2021-dated emailed n244 Application Notice to Set-aside and alter the Notice of Hearing proposed for that day.

Further, Deputy District Judge Smith in his January Order was mistaken in the execution of CPR procedures where a Claimant is being victimised by the State by blocking all access to information and legal representation and non-cooperation of the Mental Health and Law Enforcement Agencies that any 'amended' Particulars of Claim was required for assessment of the Claim. All that was required was evidence and this should have been listed for a Hearing of all parties including Victims of Panigrahi Association (VOPA) by summoning Dr Shivaji Panesar, Marty Caine, Fritz Wuehler, Nitin Bhardwaj, Cherie, Ed Mulhouse and Mr Paul Tiwana as well as Kent Police and the Independent Office for Police Conduct, the Legal Ombudsman, the Solicitors Regulation Authority, Bar Standards Board, the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution, Amnesty International, and the United Nations.

CLAIMANT'S SKELTON ARGUMENT TO THE COURT OF APPEAL

The Claimant contacted the Court of Central London repeatedly to obtain Full Written Reasons for the Judgment and Order of His Honour Judge Parfitt and these were not forthcoming. The Claimant requested the Transcript of the 21 June Hearing to be made available to him for his Appellant's Notice and this was not responded to.

The following request was made on 5 October 2021 to the Court of Central London copied to the Civil Appeals Registry:

Further the Defendant has refused to allow the Claimant to contact the Respondents by email interpreting these communications as harassment for which Kent Police interrogated the Claimant at the Police Station of an invitation which was stated to be a summons for if the Claimant had not cooperated it was made clear that he would be arrested. The 25 criminal anonymous emails sent by VOPA to various people were not given to the Claimant for assessment and neither was an apology issued or further action taken against the Claimant, thereby proving the alleged State-organised persecution.

The Court of Appeal

Dear Your Honour Judge

1. I have had to update my skeleton argument with regard to the Appellants Notice that I submitted to the Court of Appeal and which the Civil Appeals Registry has acknowledged albeit belatedly as shown in the attached: FrCivilAppealsREgistry(CourtofAppeal)30Oct2021.docx. The contents of the Appellant's Notice are also attached (Appellant's Notice CourtofAppeal5Oct2021.docx) in case this has not reached the Court of Appeal yet, and the Court should note in particular that Permission to Appeal the 21 June 2021 dated Order of the Central London County Court was refused by the Circuit Judge going by the documentation that I have brought to your attention here.

2. I should therefore be grateful if (after two years of litigation to bring Mr Boris Johnson the present Prime Minister to court for covering up criminally under the Prerogative Powers of the Executive as duties to the Monarch and also not preventing the State-organised persecution on me that has lasted 24 years) you would now kindly favourably Order the Trial as applied for persistently and if it continues to be undefended by Mr Boris Johnson in person, to Order the Prime Minister to award to me damages and compensation of £1 million to be deposited into my Tide Bank account so that I can use the money for my philanthropic endeavours as the President of the Conservative Libertarian Society. The Business Bank Account of the Society is Tide, Sort Code 04-06-05, Account Number 16771850.

I have offered an olive branch or is it throwing down the gauntlet. Neither attack nor defend: just go with the times, see what happens now. It is up to the State: if it wants to attack me back by imposing further fines or worse we will see, but I have taken the precaution of forwarding the terrorising email to the Court as further persecution so it does not have a leg to stand on. So we will say it is game set and match to me, for eventually the Urologist will find that the medications have caused all my physical abnormalities and there will then be an appeal. It will go on indefinitely. It is up to them.

I need some urgent advice on my plan to arrest, detain and aggressively question a very deficient Judge who I suspect took a backhander from the Government Legal Department and as a result my appeal was refused by him on dubious and spurious grounds.

On the subject of what passes for justice in Britain, perhaps we should look for one who instantly reminds of 'light'? Like as man called Light Man. We visit the Central London County Court and meet Barry Light man, which was my misfortune.

Lightman is not only light in name and complexion, and lightweight in abilities. It goes much further than just that.

Lightman is also very light in matters to do with constitutional rights. In fact Barry the Midget is quite dim. No, very dim.

So dim, in fact, that he goes out of his way to make the point that he is dim. And he is brazen about it.

Like standing in the way of certain parties in litigation to whom he takes a dislike. Parties like me. The dislike may be because this behnchod judge could get his evil way with one of the attractive juniors who may unwittingly hover around.

Barry, who is by no means a tall or significant figure, places himself in the way, barring the dignified and free exit from the court building of the party concerned. And Barry goes out of the court building. And follows parties in the street to discourse with them. Way into the street. He walks in the direction of where Oxford Street is. Or in the opposite way, heading for where Baker Street is. Barry usually swings both ways.

Barry Lightman is a very light man. And in his own, light, ways, he is effectively smashing those bits of civil law 'system', racket more like, that the government often boasts about. When it comes to due process, Judge Barry Lightman recognises..... none.

Not if those are being claimed by person or persons that Barry thinks are of a lower level of humanity than himself. Such as immigrants with a browner skin than Mr Light Man, who prides himself that he is a light-skinned man.

Most parties in litigation at the Central London County Court who end up being 'managed' by District Judge Barry Lightman would fit that bill. And most of them are routinely kept down by Barry Lightman. Rare exceptions do occur. Just so that Barry can carry on.....

Barry does carry on also in the certain knowledge that he is unlikely ever to be confronted by any of the famous barristers. No Michael Mansfield is likely to appear before Barry Lightman advocating the rights of any of Barry's victims. Most of those victims are beyond representation. They are litigants in person, and so harassed that they have lost all relevance to high-earning barristers like Mr Mansfield. And Barry Lightweight knows this only too well, so there is no one to call him out on his ridiculous pronouncements and errors in fact and law.

And so Barry is doing what some politicians would love to do. In a corner of central London still within walking distance from Trafalgar Square where huge crowds had been gathered, decades ago, to hear Nelson Mandela deliver one of his many grateful tributes to the British people for their help in the struggle against apartheid, Barry Lightman is maintaining apartheid. Correction. Barry Lightman is recreating apartheid in a court that is frequently approached by people desperate for justice.

People like me, to whose skin colour Barry Lightskin objects. I feel I have no alternatives now but to secrete myself outside the Central London County Court for this corrupt Light Weight to appear, confront him with some facts relating to his terrible decision and flawed order of 21 June 2021 in Case E35YM660, and, depending on how unsatisfactory are his responses, take him into protective custody for questioning, at my leisure, at Shanti Niwas. I believe I can do so under current terrorist legislation for a period of up to twenty-eight days before habeas corpus means he must be delivered up before a magistrate.

I wonder if there are any drawbacks to this proposed course of action? Without more information, I cannot get the charges of misfeasance and malfeasance in judicial office to stick. I decided not to inform my wife because she is becoming increasingly nervous about my plans, ever since I told her how I ejaculated into the coffee I served to the young WPC who came to my house uninvited to terrorise me.

I put all the background material for you in a reference link here

<https://archive.org/details/@panigrahi491>

Will you please advise me without delay, by email or phone, about the wisdom of my proposed action against this rogue judge? If I need to pay for this preliminary advice, please notify me and I will do so, I have recently won one million pounds compensation for a 24 year campaign of harassment against me by the British State.
